

Church of the Holy Spirit Ballyroan

26th of May 2024

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

Our Gospel reading for Trinity Sunday is from Matthew 28:16-20.

“Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptising them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.”

The story of the risen Jesus is different in all the four Gospels, so we should see them as theological stories, explaining the meaning of what has happened since Jesus' death and how he is with us now. Our readings are so rich this week and are worth re-reading, as we get an introduction to the mystery of the Holy Trinity. It is through baptism all people are welcomed into Triune God (the Holy Trinity). While it took many years for our Church to agree the doctrine of the Trinity, (three persons in one God), but in our Gospel we read that because of our baptism, Jesus will always be with us because we have a new identity and are children of God.

What do these words mean for you?" I am with you always until the end of the age.

Reflection by Deacon Frank.

Congratulations to all the Girls in Scoil Naomh Pádraig who Made their Frist Holy Communion last Saturday. A wonderful day was had by all. We are so proud of each and everyone of you. A big thank you to all who made the day such a lovely success.

Please help to make our exciting Corpus Christi Procession in partnership with Knocklyon Parish, after the 12 Mass on Sunday the 2nd June, a great occasion. We need a few volunteers to do this safely and with dignity befitting the Body of Christ.

We are also looking for a number of volunteers both on the day itself before and after Mass and on the Saturday 1st at 10am for a short time to get the church grounds and the church ready.

We will also need stewards on the route and on the church gates.

Please give your name and number to Mary in the office or in the Sacristy and you will be contacted

We are also looking for Rose petals, and Easter baskets and these can be left in the sacristy during the week or before the Mass on Sun.

Fr. Michael and the parish team are looking to recruit some new volunteer sacristans, who could help over the weekend masses. This is vital ministry

Many thanks Parish Team
