

Church of the Holy Spirit Ballyroan

14th of July 2024

Fifteenth Sunday In Ordinary time

Our Gospel reading is from Mark Ch 6:6-

13.

“Jesus called the twelve and began to send them out two by two” This Gospel story is also found in Matthew Ch10 & Luke Ch 9. The new Christian communities experienced their calling to share the good news that Jesus is the Son of God. While Jesus died, some of his disciples experienced his presence again. The writers of the Gospels are reflecting on the life of Jesus and his message to his followers. Just as Jesus had chosen his disciples to share his ministry on earth, the message of our Gospel is that we are also being called to share the good news with others.

The challenge for us is how can we hand on our faith in Jesus Christ, to our families and those we care about. We know since Vatican II, that all baptised Christians (not just priests and religious) are called to undertake the work that Jesus began in his life on earth.

How can we be authentic witnesses to the Gospel message to love God and our neighbour?

Reflection by Deacon Frank.
