Sixteenth Sunday In Ordinary Time

Gospel reflection Sunday 20th July.
Mary listens to Jesus while her sister Martha does the housework!
Listening to people is not always easy. Even when we arrange to meet our friends, we can be over concerned in preparing for the event, how we look, and how clean our house is. When do get to meet them, we can get excited and maybe talk too much but not listen enough. We may not pay attention to something important, and our relationship with our friends may suffer a little.

The message of our Gospel story today, is that it is important to listen to Jesus. We cannot see Jesus, but in prayer particularly in a silent moment we may get to discover what his love is asking of us. Making time in silence to be with Jesus can help our faith relationship to grow!
