Third Sunday Of Easter

The Supper at Emmaus

by Caravaggio 1601

Our Gospel is from Luke 24: 13-35. We read the wonderful story of the encounter that the two disciples had with the risen Jesus Christ on the road to Emmaus.

Perhaps you can reflect on this beautiful painting and our Gospel story today.

The story is unique to Luke's Gospel, but it is beautifully crafted, blending both the account from eyewitnesses who experienced Jesus after his resurrection (we have a name in our Gospel of Cleopas) and of course the faith journey that each of us must make in our lives.

The Lord has risen indeed!

In Ballyroan our volunteers are the back bone of our parish. So we always like to celebrate them. This week our very own Gillian Massey has a "Special birthday" along with some of her parish family and her own family we had a little party to say thanks . Thank you Gillian for always being ready to help the people of Ballyroan either on a professional level or a personal one. You are always ready to help. This does not go unnoticed. So from your Ballyroan Family Happy, Happy Birthday.
