TODAY'S GOSPEL

Luke 16:1-13

You cannot serve both God and money.

A REFLECTION

Faithful in the Little Things

In today's Gospel, Jesus reminds us that true wealth is not found in money or possessions, but in what lasts for eternity. He challenges us to be trustworthy in the small things, to use the gifts we have wisely, and to live with a generous heart. We cannot serve both God and money.

This is a call to examine what truly matters in our lives. Are we using our time, talents and resources to build God's Kingdom? Generosity, honesty and justice open our hearts to God's mercy and help us to be rich in what really counts – love, kindness and faith.

"Make friends for yourselves with untrustworthy wealth, so that when it fails, you will be welcomed into eternal homes."

Luke 16:9

Lord, help us to be faithful stewards of all that you have given us, so that we may always choose you and live for what lasts forever. Amen.
